Harrison Greenway

Arizona

The Harrison Greenway is a useful north–south connection between the Pantano River Park Trail and Julian Wash Greenway

The Harrison Greenway is a useful north–south connection between the Pantano River Park Trail and Julian Wash Greenway (via a brief on-road route). All three trails are integral components of a larger trail network called The Chuck Huckelberry Loop, spanning more than 136 miles throughout Tucson and Pima County.

For the northern third of its route, the Harrison Greenway closely parallels Harrison Road. At the road's terminus at Irvington Road, the trail continues south on its own, traveling arrow-straight through desert (and Fantasy Island Mountain Bike Trails Park) to Valencia Road. From here, the trail passes Mesquite Elementary School before turning west to reach its end at the intersection of Nexus Road and Rita Road.
