Cemetery Lane Trail

Colorado

The Cemetery Lane Trail begins at Stein Park, tucked against the Roaring Fork River, and continues south along its namesake

The Cemetery Lane Trail begins at Stein Park, tucked against the Roaring Fork River, and continues south along its namesake roadway to Highway 82. Although adjacent to Cemetery Lane, the route is tree-lined through a pleasant residential area with mountain backdrops.

At the northern end of the trail, a connection can be made to the Rio Grande Trail, a paved 42-mile route with scenic river and mountain views.

About midway, a trailhead provides a connection to the Red Butte Trail, an unpaved, single-track pathway that offers beautiful views of the valley from atop the Red Butte.
