The Table Rock Lakeshore Trail runs for 2.2 miles between the Dewey Short Visitor Center and the State Park Marina. The paved pathway is a pleasant nature experience in southern Branson.

About the Route

The Table Rock Lakeshore Trail's northern endpoint at Dewey Short Visitor Center offers an entrance onto the easy pathway along the lake's shoreline. The trail winds through Table Rock State Park under a lush tree canopy as it heads to its southern endpoint at the marina. Keep an eye out for wildlife, including bald eagles in the tall oaks, foxes, and deer. Add variety to an outdoor excursion by fishing or swimming in the lake and camping in the park.
