Beginning less than half a mile from downtown, the Bessemer City Park Trail offers a quiet natural retreat. The 1.3-mile route begins at the basketball court in Bessemer City Park and quickly dives into the park's woodlands. Many other recreational amenities are available within the park, including tennis courts, a playground, and a community pool.

The trail is part of a larger effort called the Carolina Thread Trail, which spans 15 counties across North and South Carolina.
