Paul Skeffington Memorial Trail is a 5-mile pathway in Dewitt, Iowa. The trail provides safe, well-shaded access from residential neighborhoods to the 100 acre Westbrook Park. It includes a concrete pedestrian to carry users over Silver Creek. The 10-foot paved trail has been designed to accommodate users of all ages and abilities; walkers, runners, rollerbladers and cyclists are welcome to share the path. The southern part of the trail has outdoor workout stations with a selection of exercise equipment. The trail also forms part of the route of the yearly Paul Skeffington Memorial Race, an event that attracts hundreds of enthusiastic runners.
