Roundtown Trail is a greenway in Circleville, Ohio which opened in July of 2017. It is a linear trail, despite what its name might suggest.

Roundtown Trail is a greenway in Circleville, Ohio which opened in July of 2017.

It is a linear trail, despite what its name might suggest. The trail stretches from the northwest corner of the Ohio Christian University Campus to the Pickaway County Family YMCA. The northern edge of the trail is bordered by farmland, whereas the scenery to the south shifts from natural areas to Circleville Elementary and High Schools. There are two bridges, each close to either end of the trail. The trail is 10 ft-wide and smooth asphalt, open to a variety of trail users.
