

2026

TrailLink Unlimited

Guides

Fountain Creek Trail
Colorado

Fountain Creek Trail

Colorado

The Fountain Creek Trail follows its namesake creek through the northeastern neighborhoods of Pueblo. At its southern end, the

The Fountain Creek Trail follows its namesake creek through the northeastern neighborhoods of Pueblo. At its southern end, the paved pathway ties into the Arkansas River Trail, which runs east-west across the city. The two trails are part of a larger network known as the Colorado Front Range Trail, which will one day span Colorado from Wyoming to New Mexico.

On the northern end of the Fountain Creek Trail, a spur heads east to Walking Stick Golf Course and Colorado State University.

Fountain Creek Trail

Colorado

States: Colorado

Counties: Pueblo

Length: 4.7miles

Trail end points: Jerry Murphy Road, just north of CO 47 to S. La Crosse Ave. and Stockyard Rd.

Trail surfaces: Concrete

Trail category: Greenway/Non-RT

Trail activities: Bike,Inline

Skating, Walking, Wheelchair Accessible

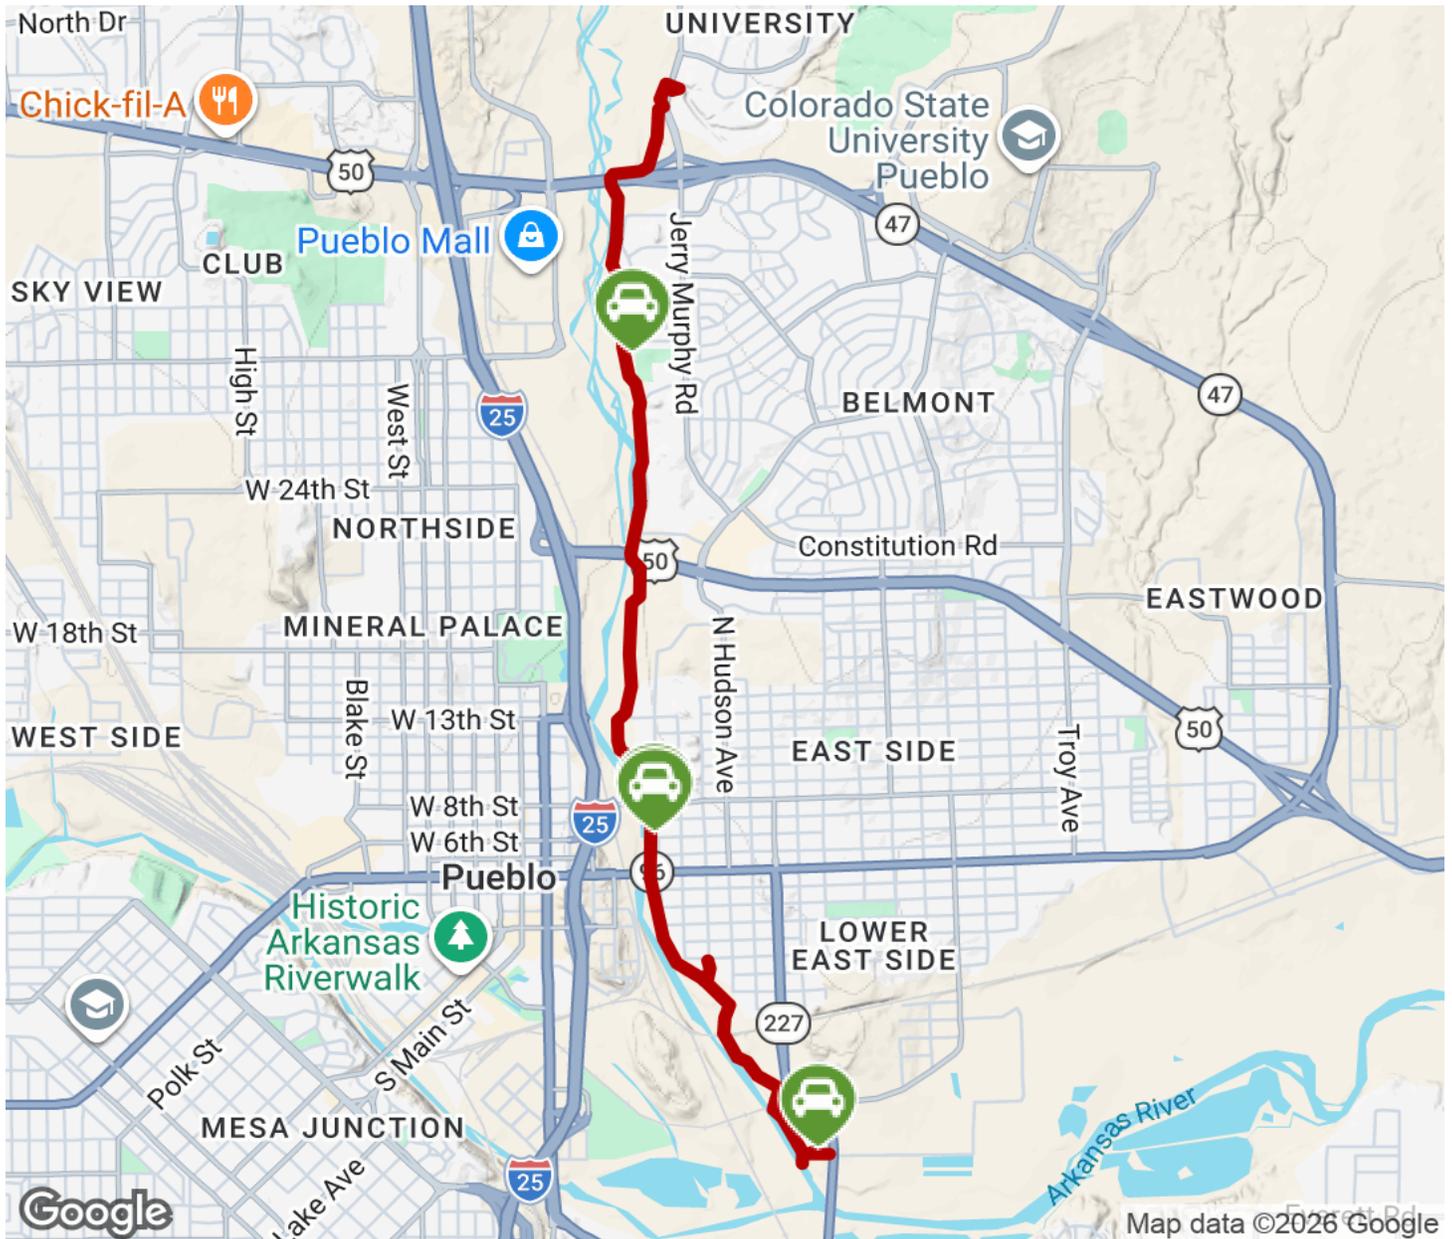

Parking & Trail Access

A trailhead parking lot is available at the south end of the trail off S. La Crosse Avenue, just north of its intersection with Stockyard Road. The closest parking lot to the north end of the trail can be found at Haaff Park, just south of the intersection of Mohawk Road and Taos Road.

Fountain Creek Trail

Colorado

Trailhead

Restroom

Parking

Water Fountain

Tunnel

TrailLink
by Rails-to-Trails Conservancy

TrailLink.com