National Wildlife Refuge Bloomington Visitor Center and Fort Snelling State Park.

Connections

At the northern end of the Nine Mile Creek Regional Trail, trail users can continue along the North Cedar Lake Regional Trail.

At 12th Ave. S, the trail connects with the Nokomis-Minnesota River Regional Trail.

Unlike its name would suggest, the Nine Mile Creek Regional Trail is actually 15 miles from its headwaters at Minnetog Lake to the Minnesota River.

About the Route

This regional trail meanders alongside the creek as it flows through the watershed communities of Hopkins, Minnetonka, Edina, Richfield, and Bloomington. It's a 10-foot wide asphalt trail with a few sections of boardwalk that welcomes walkers, bikers, and others using non-motorized transport to immerse themselves in the area's diverse natural beauty, as well as connect with each other across neighborhoods and jurisdictions.
