Part of San Antonio's 80-mile and counting Howard Peak Greenway Trail system, the San Pedro Creek Trail serves the west side of the San Antonio. The San Pedro Creek flows from the Apache Creek down into the San Antonio River. Likewise, the trail begins at its intersection with the Apache Creek Greenway, and winds its way under Interstate 10 and along the creek to the city's famous River Walk. It's a hard surface trail, accommodating pedestrians and cyclists alike.
