The hard surface trail runs from Creasey Bicentennial Park to the Western edge of Grand Blanc Township. Beginning at the park on Grand Blanc Road, the trail takes you past a dog park and athletic fields before winding between houses and behind Grand Blanc Western Middle School. Continuing north, the asphalt turns into boardwalk over the wetlands, and then returns to pavement and skirts the Crestwood Memorial Cemetery. Portions of the trail are shaded, others are exposed, but the greenery is consistent throughout.
