Bicentennial Park Pathway

Michigan

The 2.7-mile hard surface Bicentennial Park Pathway runs from Creasey Bicentennial Park to the Western edge of Grand Blanc

The 2.7-mile hard surface Bicentennial Park Pathway runs from Creasey Bicentennial Park to the Western edge of Grand Blanc Township.

About the Route

Leaving from the park's southern entrance on Grand Blanc Road, the trail takes trail users past a dog park and athletic fields before winding between houses and behind Grand Blanc Western Middle School. Continuing north, the asphalt turns into a boardwalk over the wetlands and then returns to the pavement and skirts the Crestwood Memorial Cemetery. Portions of the trail are shaded, others are exposed, but the greenery is consistent throughout.
