A straightforward asphalt sidepath trail, the St. Bridgets Bike Path runs along the side of its namesake roadway in southern Rochester, in a residential and commercial pocket just off Highway 63. While not much to write home about, the trail offers a nice recreation option for local residents and visitors staying at the nearby hotels, and serves as a connection to both the 40th Street Bike Path and The Gardens Trail, which help provide some quality mileage for bike rides or jogs.
