Overview

The Tigard Heritage Trail connects Tiedeman Avenue and the surrounding area to downtown Tigard. Following the route of a former railroad spur, the rail-trail is 0.75 miles long and fully paved. Trees and plantings make the short route a pleasant experience.

About the Route

The northern end of the rail-trail is next to 11350 SW Tiedeman Avenue. From there, the trail curves southeast as it parallels SW Tigard Street and an active rail line. The road is on the west side of the trail and the rail line is on the east, separated from trail by trees and a fence.
