

2024

TrailLink Unlimited

Guides

J Neils
Walking Trail
Montana

J Neils Walking Trail

Montana

Overview The J Neils Walking Trail runs for 4.5 miles through the scenic Libby, Montana. The route is mostly paved and flat. About railroad corridor and crosses the river along an old railroad trestle.

Just after crossing the Kootenay River, the trail splits briefly, where a spur trail takes a loop around a small pond.

The next, more southern section of the trail meanders alongside the small Libby Creek. This section is a paved asphalt route. Near the southern end of the route, the trail leaves off from the creek and heads through open fields as the trail approaches its southern endpoint at Spencer Rd.

Overview

The J Neils Walking Trail runs for 4.5 miles through the scenic Libby, Montana. The route is mostly paved and flat.

About the Route

The J Neils Walking Trail has a northern endpoint at J Neils Memorial Park, which offers a dog park as well as baseball and soccer fields. The trail here does a wide loop around the park, which is mostly shaded by the surrounding woods.

Trail users can also continue south here along Champion Haul Rd. which turns back into a trail shortly after leaving the park. This section of the trail runs along the former

J Neils Walking Trail

Montana

States: Montana

Counties: Lincoln

Length: 4.55miles

Trail end points: J Neils Memorial Park, 1301 MT-37 (Libby) to 21 Spencer Rd. (Libby)

Trail surfaces: Asphalt,Gravel

Trail category: Rail-Trail

Trail activities: Bike,Fishing,Wheelchair Accessible,Walking

Parking & Trail Access

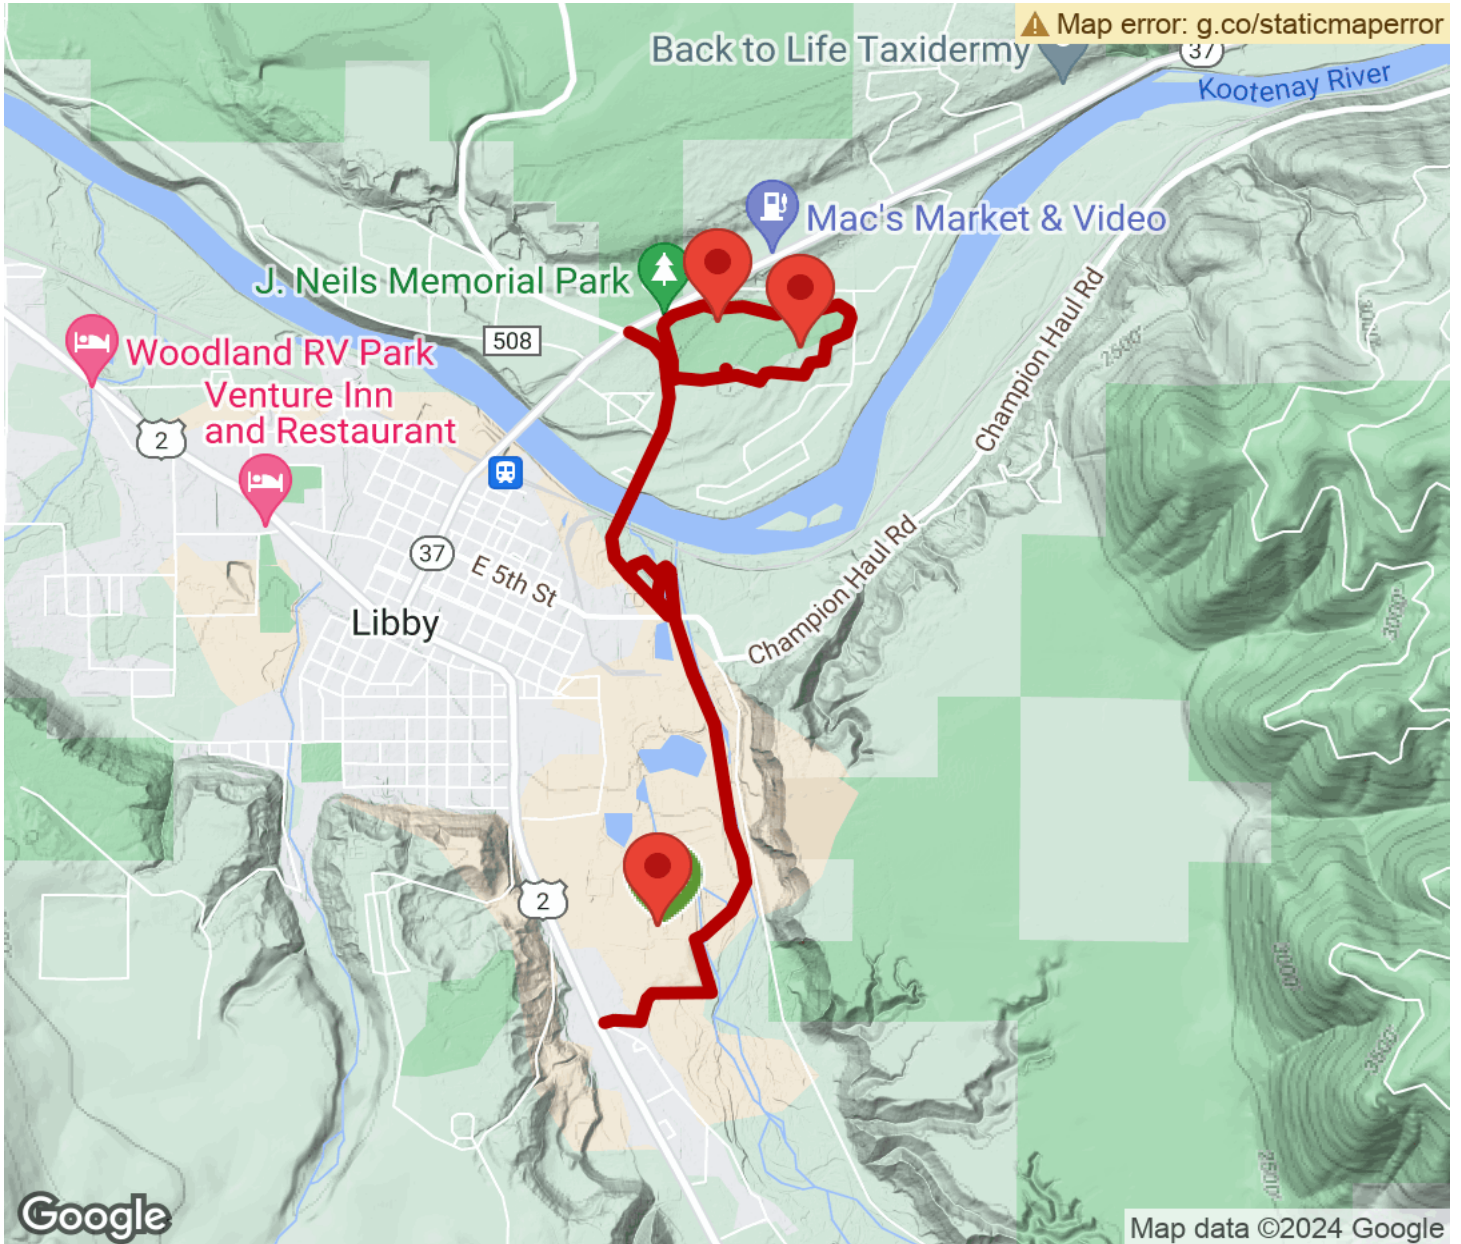

The J Neils Walking Trail runs between J Neils Memorial Park, 1301 MT-37 (Libby), where parking is available, and 21 Spencer Rd. (Libby).

Please see TrailLink Map for detailed directions.

J Neils Walking Trail

Montana

Trailhead

Restroom

Parking

Water Fountain

Tunnel

TrailLink
by Rails-to-Trails Conservancy

TrailLink.com