The Springhill Pedestrian/Bicycle Path runs north to south on a former rail corridor in Springhill, Louisiana, just south of the Arkansas border. The paved trail is lined with trees and lights, making it an attractive and inviting space for local residents and tourists.

At Butler Street, the trail passes the North Webster Chamber of Commerce building before reaching its northern terminus at the Springhill Farmer's Market pavilion. Most of the trail parallels Springhill's downtown on N. Main Street, which features one of the largest single-screen movie theaters in Louisiana.
