The Crystal Falls to Stager section of the Iron Range Trail system is primarily used by snowmobiles and ATVs. The trail follows an old railroad corridor through the bogs, lakes and forests of Michigan's Upper Peninsula, between the town of Crystal Falls and Stager Lake Park. The north end of the trail connects to the Crystal Falls to Iron River segment. The south end of the trail meets the State Line Trail just northwest of Stager Lake Park.
