

2024

TrailLink Unlimited 🔯

Guides 🕫 🤝

Trail of Tears Greenway Missouri

The Trail of Tears Greenway is a segment of the cross-country Trail of Tears Historical Trail, the corridor that documents the forced surface in an attempt to preserve the trail conditions the Cherokee people may have encountered nearly 180 years ago. A natural-surface trail segment in Battlefield travels south from the Ewing Sports Complex to Cloverdale Street, where future on-street connections will connect the trail to Battlefield City Hall and City Park. Another portion of this route near Republic Road and Golden Avenue has also been preserved with a natural surface trail.

Learn more about the Trail of Tears from the Cherokee Historical Association here.

The Trail of Tears Greenway is a segment of the crosscountry Trail of Tears Historical Trail, the corridor that documents the forced migration of thousands of Cherokee people from their homelands in Georgia, Alabama, Tennessee, and North Carolina to Oklahoma in 1838 and 1839.

In Springfield, a paved half-mile section parallels the Trail of Tears historical route and interpretive signage along the trail delineates its history. Starting from Nathanael Greene Park, the path continues south towards Battlefield. This trail is open to walkers, runners, bicyclists, and accessible for those with mobility aids or families with strollers.

Additional sections of the trail have retained their natural

States: Missouri Counties: Greene Length: 0.5miles

Trail end points: South Creek Greenway (south of Nathanael Greene Park in Springfield) to W Marcella Dr & S Golden Ave (Battlefield)

Trail surfaces: Asphalt
Trail category: Rail-Trail
Trail activities: Bike,Inline

Skating, Wheelchair Accessible, Walking

Parking & Trail Access

Parking is available at Nathanael Greene/Close Memorial Park (2400 S Scenic Ave, Springfield) and at Battlefield City Park (5434 Tower Dr, Battlefield).

Trail of Tears Greenway Missouri

