

2024

TrailLink Unlimited

Guides

Widney Park
Rail-Trail
West Virginia

Widney Park Rail-Trail

West Virginia

Widney Park Rail-Trail is located in the quiet West Virginia community of Durbin. The old railroad town has a charming Main

Widney Park Rail-Trail is located in the quiet West Virginia community of Durbin. The old railroad town has a charming Main Street with welcoming shops and restaurants and the rail-trail is located just a block south of it. The trail travels east for just shy of a mile along the former timber-hauling Greenbrier Division of the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway through pleasant woodlands toward the neighboring community of Frank.

On the trail's western end, visitors can catch the Durbin Rocket Excursion Train, an antique steam locomotive that offers beautiful views along the Greenbrier River in the Monongahela National Forest. On the north end of Durbin, you can also extend your adventure by hopping on the West Fork Trail, which heads north 22 miles through forested mountainous terrain to Glady.

Widney Park Rail-Trail

West Virginia

States: West Virginia

Counties: Pocahontas

Length: 0.8miles

Trail end points: Durbin & Greenbrier Valley

Railroad Station (Durbin) to 0.1 mile south of

Country Route 250 (Frank)

Trail surfaces: Crushed Stone

Trail category: Rail-Trail

Trail activities: Mountain Biking, Walking

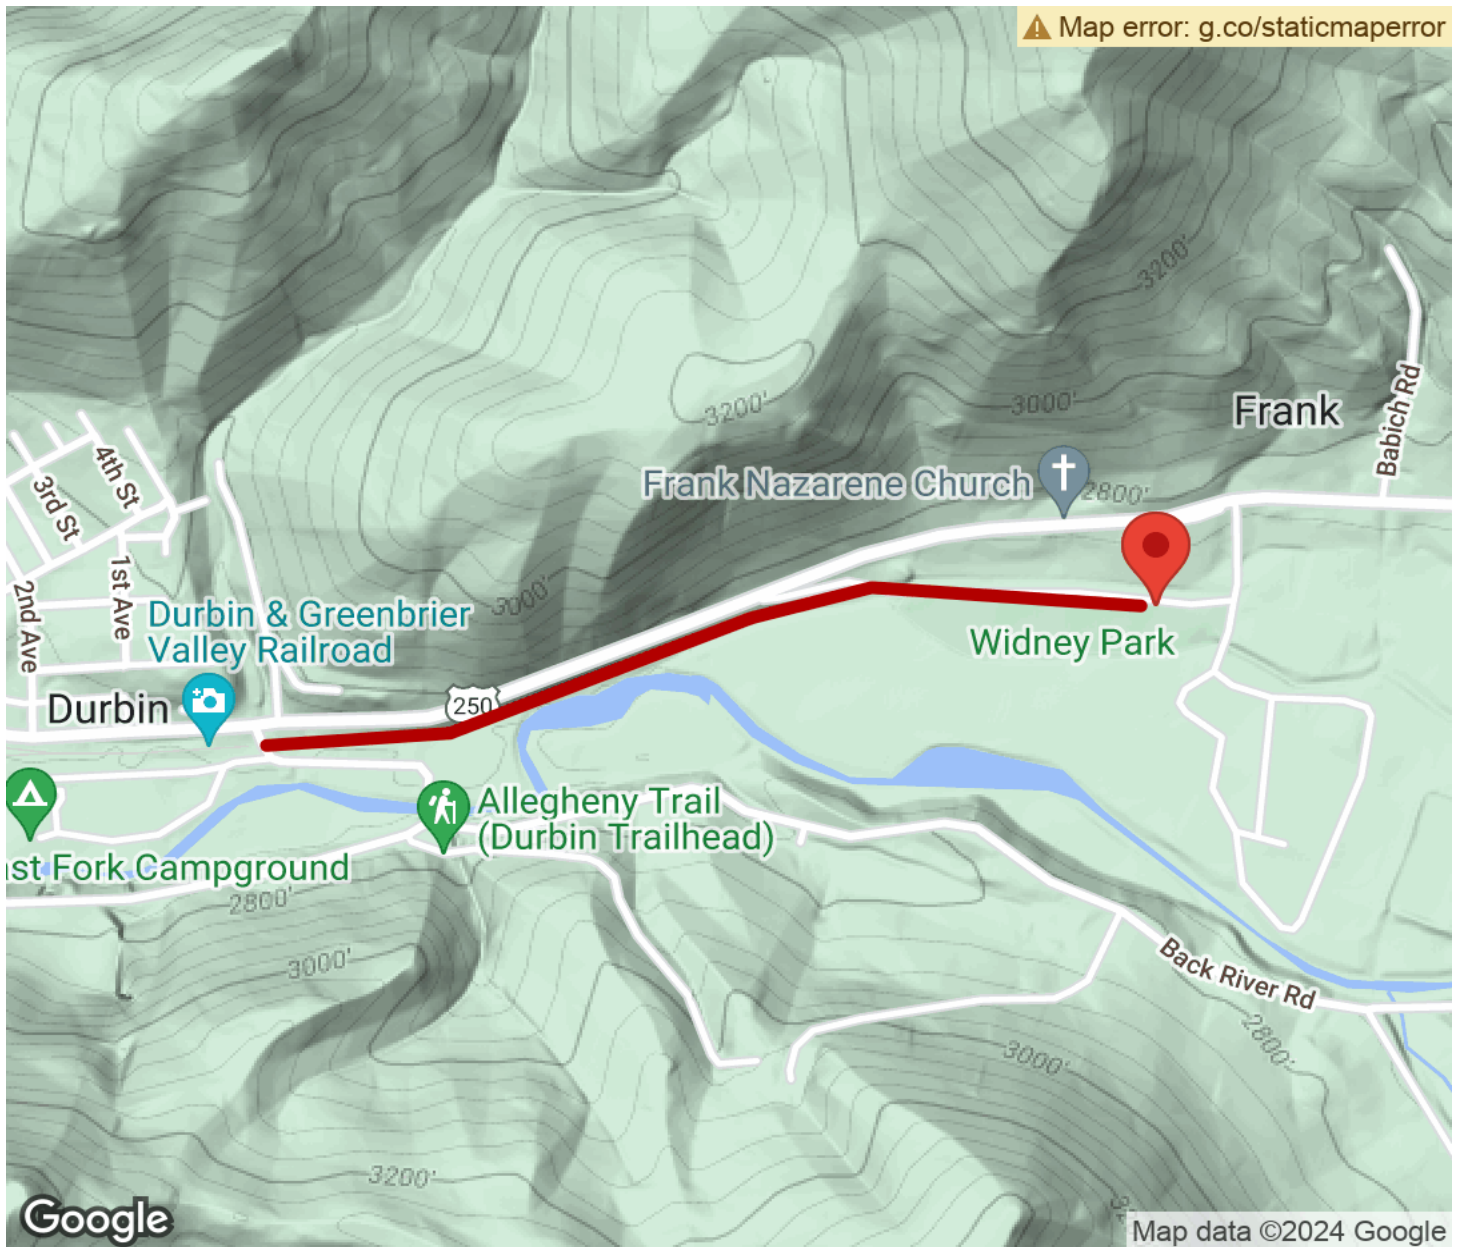

Parking & Trail Access

To reach the trail from Elkins, take US 219 south to Huttonsville. Merge onto US 250 going south and follow it all the way to Durbin. The trail is located off Back River Road, one block south of Main Street.

Widney Park Rail-Trail

West Virginia

Trailhead

Restroom

Parking

Water Fountain

Tunnel

TrailLink
by Rails-to-Trails Conservancy

TrailLink.com