Table Rock Lakeshore Trail offers an easy, paved pathway to experience nature in southern Branson. Following the lake's shoreline, the trail winds through Table Rock State Park under a lush tree canopy for just over 2 miles. You can begin at the Dewey Short Visitor Center and follow the trail down to the the State Park Marina. Keep an eye out for wildlife, including bald eagles in the tall oaks, fox, and deer. Add variety to your outdoor excursion by fishing or swimming in the lake. Camping is also available in the park.
